

Finally you get something right--and now you want to change it.

Leave the No Call list as it is right now. Stop finding loop holes for big business. Protect the consumer. It's about time politician listen to the people and stop letting money do the talking.